EVENT DRIVEN MONITOR

Vol. 164

www.KEDM.com

February 18, 2024

Dear Reader,

We realize that the size of KEDM may be intimidating—it shouldn't be. KEDM is meant for those in a hurry, along with those who want to spend a weekend fishing for ideas. Here are some tips on how to navigate KEDM based on how much time you intend to spend.

Up front, we have “KEDM Kliff Notes” where we flag what we consider to be the most interesting events of the week. Mind you, these are not buy and sell recommendations, but simply notes on the corporate event. This is then followed by “Weekly Changes” where we note all the material changes since the prior week. For many of you, these two sections should give you all the information you need to be informed of what’s changing in the world of Event-Driven opportunities. The next few pages are our trading watchlists and notes on beaten down stocks that are on our radar for possible inflections in the coming months.

For those who want to dive in, the supporting data then follows. The index on page 2 links to the corresponding sections, allowing you to rapidly jump around to the sections that you are most interested in. We have color coded the data with green indicating a new ticker was added and yellow for when data changes. This is meant to allow you to rapidly scan the data and focus on only the information that has changed since last time. To make the data more user friendly, we have added links that rapidly take you to the appropriate press release, SEC filing or corporate presentation. Finally, we’ve flagged certain data orange to show that it’s moved materially within the data-set. This is for people looking for leaders and laggards.

We know that some of you want to pull charts or go back to old data, so it’s all there for you. It really comes down to what you want to do. KEDM can be a quick weekly reminder of pending events, or it can become a full-time obsession, along with everything in between. We hope you find it as valuable as we do.

Sincerely,

KEDM Team

KEDM Kliff Notes

Too busy to read everything? The KEDM team summarizes the most interesting Event-Driven information of the week/month.

Its 13F season so before we jump into a RoRo, we thought we'd breeze through our regular BSD list. A couple things stuck out:

- Berkshire continues to gobble up oil assets, scooping up CVX and all the OXY he can get under $60/sh
- Druck sold a ton of tech while taking smallish (~200bps) positions in gold names – NEM, GOLD
- Elliott continued to accumulate over in MTCH and ETSY (they already got a Board seat)
- Burry added a ton of China (BABA and JD) while picking up some cigar puffs (BIG, QRTEA, WBD)

13F BSD Tracker

Turning to our newest theme, RoRos, earnings got rolling with a focus on the current progress of contract renewals, mitigating Red Sea disruptions and meaningful changes in capital allocation strategies.

RORO Index...No, this isn't SMCI.

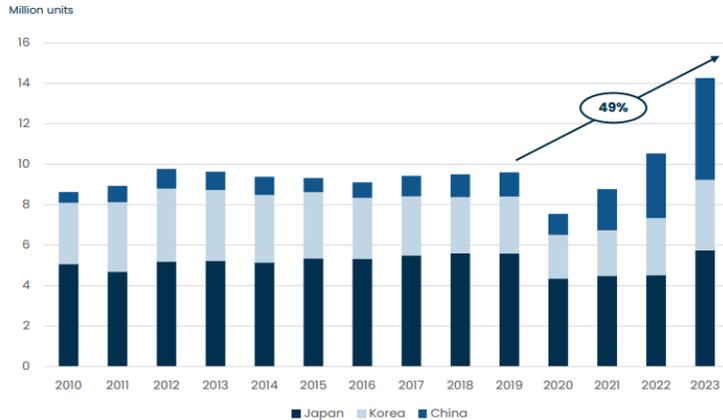

Current market rates hit a new record-high in January, with HAUTO reporting net rates of $85.40/cbm. Both HAUTO and WAWI have spent FY23 taking advantage of strong rates to roll contracts. RoRo operators tend to be cagey when discussing exactly where their contracts are marked, but WAWI reported rate increases on new contracts coming in at 20% to +100% depending on trade lane, and HAUTO states that the average net rate for new contracts is over $100/cbm.

FY24 will be the year of contract renewals for the RoRo industry, followed by FY25 and FY26 being the years of digesting newbuild supply. HAUTO is set to renew ~28% of their annual volumes in FY24 and WAWI is looking to renew a whopping ~46% of annual volumes this year. Both operators appear committed to bringing these contracts up to market rates, and claim to be securing more firm volume commitments from its customers – though, like with rates, they continue to be vague about exact commitment levels or terms.

As the industry looks past FY24, it remains cautiously optimistic about absorbing the expected newbuilds with the orderbook standing at 37% of the current fleet as of December 2023. Gram Car Carriers, GCC NO, points out that while the orderbook is large, this will be the first net fleet growth since ~2017, while east auto exports have expanded 49% since then.

Far East exports defying global auto sales
Significant rise in ton-mile demand due to long-haul growth

2023 - Export destinations

The increase of 4.7 million units from 2019 to 2023 requires an additional ~110 Panamax PCTCs

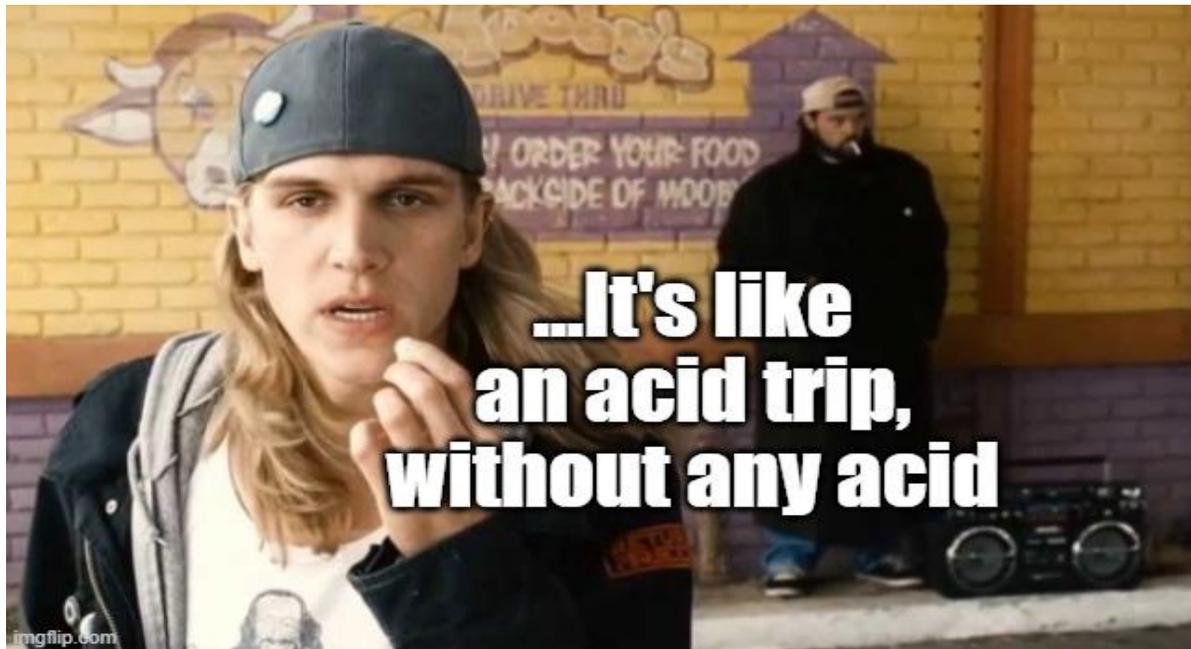

While a 37% orderbook is daunting in any floating industry, the demand and ton-miles are continuing to increase (WAWI estimates Chinese exports in FY24 will increase 26% YoY) and port congestion for RoRos has been a recurring issue that absorbs capacity, even at the reduced size of the industry fleet.

Over the near term, RoRo operators will be trying to navigate the Red Sea disruptions with both HAUTO and WAWI avoiding the Red Sea since the end of FY23. Rerouting around the Cape of Good Hope will decrease volumes and increase voyage expenses, but operators are trying to offset increased costs through surcharges and some cargo repricing for these voyages. Many operators already have surcharge mechanisms in place for their contracts used to offset bunker costs. These surcharges are usually set at the start of a voyage and therefore lag when costs are increasing, but eventually even out over the year when higher surcharges lag decreasing costs.

Lastly, most operators and tonnage providers are finding themselves with significant cash flow due to higher rates but limited ways to deploy the cash if they've already set up financing for their newbuilds. Operators have been willing to set and increase generous dividend policies with GCC paying out 75% of net income in dividends and HAUTO moving to pay out "100% of cash generation after amortization of debt facilities, capital expenditures and payable taxes."

RoRos are ignored, and seem to be inflecting...

Turning to the market for a quickie, it sure feels like we're living through a fever dream here...

Yes, the RRP is gushing liquidity everywhere... Yes, the economy is booming... Yes, the inflation is accelerating... Yes, Fiscal is gonna be like 8% of GDP in 2024 (elections need stimmies)...

...and amazingly, the Fed is talking about cutting rates. Seriously, they have a few thousand economists costing taxpayers a few billion a year, and this is their plan???

Which brings us to Eiffel Towers... (sorry, we've never been to Paris, but this feels directionally correct)

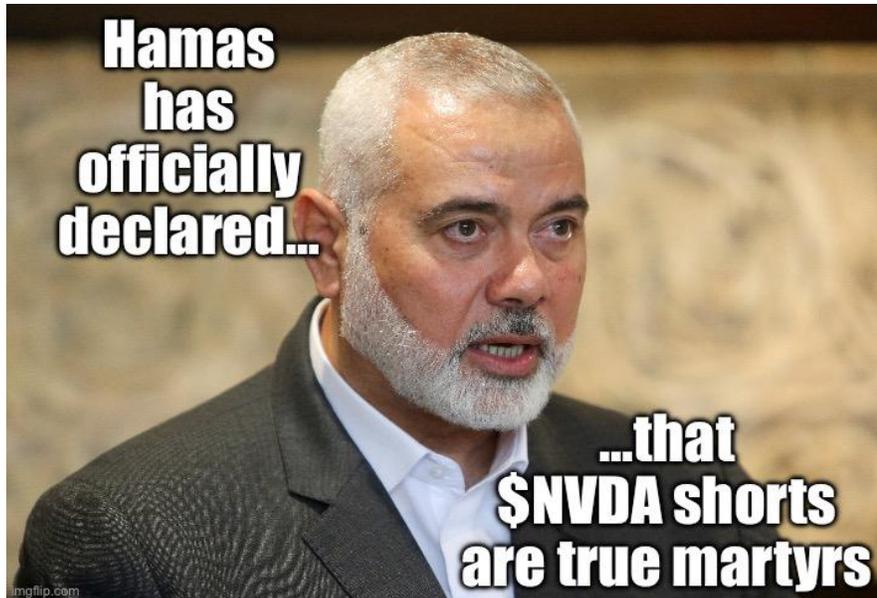

Look at a chart of SMCI (if you're thinking that Super Micro Computer sounds like the name of a bubble stock from bubble past—like the 2000 bubble—you wouldn't be incorrect). Tell me that chart doesn't have a Frenchman looking down at you, while you try to pronounce something on the menu. That is an Eiffel Tower to us:

Eiffel Towers tend to happen near the end of a market move. They are exhaustion charts. One Eiffel Tower can be an isolated event, a handful of them in a week or two, is indicative. It shows that the fever dream is finally burning off. Guys are wondering what the hell they're doing long YOLO calls after a 20x move. They want to party like it's Q1/2021, but that RRP only has about 2 months left to it. Markets are supposed to be forward looking (they're not anymore). When the RRP stops draining, liquidity conditions will change. Those chasing their AI dreams, will suddenly have a cost of capital again.

So, KEDM is an Event-Driven rag. Let's tie it all together with how we are thinking about it. You'd be ludicrous to short a parabola on the way up. That's how you get run over. Rookies take the bait. Pros know to watch, feel their pain, but stay out of the arena...

Runaway charts can keep running for longer than you can remain solvent. However, after the break comes, you can shoot them in the back. Now, this takes some experience.

What's a break, instead of a pullback?? We can't tell you. But when we see a big engulfing bar on high volume we load our guns. So, do we short the stock??

We know that these things can re-ignite. Instead, we tend to sell long-dated calls in a basket. We want that premium to pad our risk (Theta and Vol) so that if it starts running again, we can roll up and out. Or book it without too much pain. In our experience, after running over the dealers with a Gamma squeeze, IV stays elevated for a while. That’s a mispricing in our view, because the Fever Dream has broken, yet everyone is still having flashbacks. ...but, we’re playing these trades small as we also have PTSD. We also don’t want to get chased out on the inevitable test of the top.

In our experience, these things break hard, then chop a bunch of wood, testing the highs, before slowly drifting off to fair value...

Look at TLRY back in 2018 to see how this tends to work...

Except, TLRY was an isolated event, there’s multiple parabolas going on today. We think they’ll peak around the same time. So, you have our battle plan on the Event-Driven side...

After there's a few Eiffel Towers in a row, we expect to see the Naz wobble. Look at the divergences in MAG7—it's already starting. We expect some wild and whippy ranges, just like March of 2000. Then, we expect a massive rotation, a rotation back into inflation assets. That's our roadmap. We've been waiting for it to play out. It seems like we're finally in the ending innings, and it will line up roughly with the RRP hitting zero. Which brings us to oil...

Yeah, we're oil bulls. We've become awful lonely over the past year. But the charts are setting up. Meanwhile, we get the sense from Prime Broker positioning data, that no one is long. The 13Fs just dropped from the top firms and they sure aren't long (except for Warren). They're hiding in MAG7 and 2nd tier MAG7 assets. We think they'll once again get the commodity itch. Just as soon as their names melt...

We'll have more on oil and oil services as we work through earnings nextweek but in the meantime, onto the events...

Cluster Buying Notes:

- A couple insiders bought at the apparel manufacturing company, V.F. Corporation (VFC). The new CEO \(as of July 2023\) bought ~\$1.005 million worth, and a director bought ~\$199K worth. VFC owns the following brands: Vans, The North Face, Timberland, Dickies, Smartwool, Icebreaker, Altra, Supreme, Napapijri, Kipling, Eastpak, Jansport, and Timberland PRO. Over the past 5 years the company has gone from owning 32 to 12 brands. The company sold 9 brands in 2022. Engaged Capital and Legion Partners Asset Management are activists in this name who have been pushing for strategic reviews of the company's brands. On 2/6/24, VFC announced an overall strategic portfolio review of its brand assets. Insiders bought in December of 2022 as well.
- Insiders bought at the defense electronics manufacturer, Mercury Systems, Inc. (MRCY). The company manufactures and sells essential components etc. to defense contractors, the U.S. Government, and commercial aerospace companies. The CEO bought ~\$203K worth. The CFO bought ~\$100K worth. A couple directors bought as well. Jana Partners is an activist in this name and has been pushing for strategic alternatives and board representation. On 7/6/23, MRCY entered into a voting agreement with Jana Partners, and the company advanced a "go-forward strategic plan through continued board refreshment". Jana Partners bought ~\$37.27 million worth on 2/9/24.

- As mentioned in the past, we don't put much weight into insider sells but its worth noting that Zuck and Bezos (and one of his lieutenants) continue to hammer the sell button. Seems telling combined with the Eiffel Towers sightings...

TTM shares sold by insiders in META + AMZN

- Cluster Watchlist: SIX; WEF CN; HLF; LAZY; GLT; OXY; LXU; SII CN

Buyback Notes:

- Interesting to see Barrick, GOLD, pop up with a \$1B authorization. This on the heels of the G.O.A.T \(Druck\) buying a couple million shares in Q4 \(see 13F tracker above\)
- The old post bankruptcy name and turbocharger manufacturer, GTX, announced a new \$350m program \(~16% of mkt cap\) after taking in $217m in the TTM.
- Udemy, UDMY authorized a $100m program. Gotta think all these layoffs will give these companies a tailwind...
- The perpetual compunder, NVR, approved another $750m after finishing up their previous $500m program in Q4.
- ABNB upped their buyback to $6B (~6%) while taking in $2.5B in the TTM

Short Squeeze Notes:

- Short Squeeze Watchlist: ZIM

IPO Unlock Notes:

- A lot of chatter on the ARM unlock coming up next month but it looks smaller than it appears. Softbank holds 929m shares of the 1,026m shares out, and they unlock on 3/12. But they also have 769m of those shares pledged in a new facility Softbank created concurrent with the IPO that they can borrow off of.

Secondary Notes:

- The PE firm, American Securities, filed to sell its remaining stake in BLBD (~4m shares) lifting some of overhang on the stock
- MODD priced \$10m to see them through their FDA approval of their diabetes delivery tech. CEO took the majority of the offering

CEO Turnover Notes:

- Online gambling Co, GAN, announced that interim CEO Seamus McGill will become the permanent chief executive.
- Sports Illustrated operator, AREN, appoints Cavitt Randall as their CEO, replacing Manoj Bhargava after his resignation as interim chief. Mr. Randall will receive a salary of $1. Concurrent with the appointment, Mr. Bhargava also announced that he will invest \$12m in the business. In Bhargava's own words "The news of our demise is a little early. We're not going anywhere" (KEDM emphasis added).
- Hut 8 appoints Asher Genoot as Chief Executive Officer on the heels of their merger with US Bitcoin Corp. HUT was the target of short report a few weeks back.
- LOCO announces that Liz Williams will be its CEO. She has a solid CV, as she is leaving her post as CEO at Outfox Hospitality, which was recently created through a merger between Foxtrot (which Williams lead) and Dom's Kitchen and Market, both fast growing concepts. Previously, she served at Yum! Brands as CFO and President of Taco Bell.
- CEO Watchlist: ZVIA; LAZY; GRPN; HLLY; PMTS; ALTO

Bankruptcy Notes:

- BK chatter is heating up:
- On the eve of bankruptcy, Saudi Arabia fund, Mithaq Capital, swooped into Children's Place, took 54% of the equity and will provide financing for a restructuring. PLCE pulled a GME this week and was up ~350% off last week's lows
- Apparel retailer Express (EXPR) is preparing a debt restructuring for ~$280M of debt that could involve a bankruptcy filing within weeks
- Big Lot's, BIG has been circling the drain for some time but worth noting the heavily indebted retailer popped up on Burry's 13F filing this week.
- Enviva (EVA), the largest US wood pellet exporter, is preparing to file for bankruptcy within days amid a wrong way bet on wood pellet prices. Sorry Ubben – Go woke, go broke...
- There's a joke in here somewhere but breast implant manufacturer Sientra (SIEN) filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy due to a consumer pullback. The Company is hoping to find a buyer in Chapter 11 to avoid filing for Chapter 7. Several of the products the Company sells are used in ongoing medical treatments so a Chapter 7 filing would put customers in a pretty tough predicament.
- Fabric and crafts retailer Joann (JOAN) is in discussions with lenders for new capital to increase its cash reserves in an attempt to avoid a Chapter 11 filing

SPAC Notes:

- SPAC Mergers Announced this week: ARYD/Adagio Medical

Newsletter Short Notes:

- Short-seller reports continue to be published.
 - This week, Hindenburg published two newsletter shorts, one for RENB and the other one for TEMN SW. The Renovaro BioSciences story is wild, worth at least reading the thread...
 - RILY, with 62% of the float shorted, was targeted by the Bear Cave. It is the third short seller on RILY in the last 6 months, the other two being Wolfpack and Friendly Bear.
- Newsletter Short: N/A

13D and Activist Notes:

- JBLU- Uncle Carl took 10% position at JetBlue and we experienced the fastest boards seats ever awarded to an activist (less than 12 hours after filings came out). While Icahn has a perfect track record of airlines, he is involved in that ends up in bankruptcy (famously, TWA, CH11 twice in '92 and '95) we accept that the story is interesting here with a blocked Spirit acquisition and new management. SAVE / JBLU is awaiting the US appeals court hearing in June.
- VFC- Reuters reports that the activist Engaged Capital's campaign over at the struggling owner of North Face, Vans and Timberland received the backing of the founding family (great grandson of Founder). Remember, Engaged wants VFC to trim costs and sell non-core brands.
 - With VFC all over the Monitor, its worth noting the following apparel manufacturers are undergoing strategic alternatives/reviews and have had activists pushing for changes, recently: DLA, HBI, and WWW to name a few.
- AIM CN -Mithaq Capital announced that it is terminating its tender offer, as its offer did not meet the minimum number required before the bid expired on Thursday. Mithaq did note that it is still "concerned with the direction of the company". Their annual meeting will be fun.
- WISH – Carlo Cannell got his WISH! Wish owner ContextLogic is selling all its assets and liabilities to Qoo10 for \$173 million cash ($6.50 cash per share, 44% premium). Following closing will be debt free and with cash from sale, as well as $2.7 billion NOLs, which the company wants to monetize. Company mentioned that it "intends to explore the opportunity for a financial sponsor to help realize the value of its tax assets, if it cannot, it intends to promptly return all capital to its shareholders".
- Upcoming AGMs/EGMs:
- 13D Watchlist: SIX; PBI; NNDM; ONTF; BAYN GR; MX; SPWH; VAL; OSTK; VSTO; PRKA

Merger Notes:

- TRIP formed a special committee to consider Liberty TripAdvisor (LTRPB)'s offer, which is also a controlling shareholder.
- BATL / Fury had its third merger agreement amendment, in which the 'notorious' deposit obligation was removed and the termination fee was even reduced to zero. Just three weeks ago, the deal was considered as 'done' until the merger amendments started rolling in. The spread is 71%.
- Upcoming dates:

Busted Merger Notes:

- Busted Watchlist: WG/ LN; TGNA; CF CN

Strategic Alternatives Notes:

- With a push from Perceptive Advisors, LIAN finished up their strategic review and will wind down operations and delist its ADRs by 2024 with a complete dissolution by 2027. BoD has declared $4.80/sh special divvy (2/27 record date, payable 3/11 to shares). Citibank is expected to pay ADR holders on 3/14, net a $0.05 ADR fee. With ADRs trading 4.75/sh, you are getting a free call on the legacy development assets if you are so inclined to trade a PFIC
- FREE- Previously mentioned CPG sweetener artificial flavor maker Whole Earth Brands is getting acquired at \$4.875/sh. Remember, significant shareholder Sababa's previous offer was $4.00/sh. Transaction Concludes Evaluation of Strategic Alternatives.
- Strategic alts watchlist: NLS; RMBL; LMPX; FARM; BRY; SRG; CCO; BNED

Privatization Notes:

- The UK government continues to reduce its stake in NWG LN – from 62% in 2021 to 39% by May 2023. Stake reduction will continue upon appointing a permanent CEO.
- Privatization Watchlist: SALIK UH; DTC UH

CVR Notes:

- CVR Watchlist: N/A

Investor Letter Notes:

- Silver Beech Capital highlighted Brookfield Corporation (BN) in its Q4 letter, a holding company of multiple entities, two of which are NYSE listed: BAM (~75%) and BNRE (~91%). The fund says due to the following reasons, the company is attractive: a) investment track record; b) high growth – AUM had 27% CAGR over the last five years; c) misunderstood high-quality company; and d) attractive valuation.

- Myrmikan Research's Q4 letter outlined the significance of trade in human civilization, starting from barter traders to sophisticated global markets. The letter dived into trade challenges such as piracy, geopolitical tensions, and potential implications of the current events.
- Silver Ring Value Partners introduced Babcock International Group (BAB LN), a company in its third year of turnaround. The fund estimates that the update to the best case is a 300% gain, while the downside to the worst case is ~30%.
- Kathmandu Capital mentioned that the weakness in oil and gas prices is only temporary and projects that the lower interest rates the market is waiting for would lead to another inflationary cycle, benefiting the oil & gas positions. The fund briefly mentioned a few of its investments: Nagacorp (3918 HK) and Kaspi.KZ (KSPI), which recently completed its US uplisting.
- Gator Capital Management stated that the fund gained exposure in regional banks that did not focus on serving the venture capital industry and believes they present an attractive opportunity – as the valuations are still on the lower end of the historical range despite the year-end rally. The fund explained its bullish stance on HOOD and the risks to it. Worth noting the uptick in Cluster Buying in the regionals in the past few weeks...

Fertilizer		11/12/2022	Neutral	Neutral	After nearly a decade of fertilizer prices in the doldrums, prices for potash, phosphates, and nitrogen hit near all time highs in March and April driven by increased energy costs, geopolitical conflicts, and supply chain and logistical challenges. Prices have fallen in recent months as the supply picture begins to look less dire and demand destruction sets in. With several projects to increase capacity in both potash and phosphates, and falling natural gas prices and the reopening of nitrogen fertilizer production facilities in Europe, fertilizer prices may continue to fall from what are currently extremely elevated levels.
